SPRING SEMESTER 2022

The Bryce Jordan Center
1:00 p.m.
National Anthem
by Francis Scott Key

O say, can you see, by the dawn’s early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight’s last gleaming;
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro’ the perilous fight,
O’er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets’ red glare, the bombs bursting in air
Gave proof thro’ the night that our flag was still there.
O say, does that Star-Spangled Banner yet wave
O’er the land of the free and the home of the brave!

Alma Mater
by Fred Lewis Pattee

For the glory of old State,
For her founders, strong and great,
For the future that we wait,
Raise the song, raise the song,

Sing our love and loyalty,
Sing our hopes that, bright and free,
Rest, O Mother dear, with thee.
All with thee, all with thee.

When we stood at childhood’s gate,
Shapeless in the hands of fate,
Thou didst mold us, dear old State,
Dear old State, dear old State.

May no act of ours bring shame
To one heart that loves thy name,
May our lives but swell thy fame,
Dear old State, dear old State!

Don Roy King ('69)

Alumnus Don Roy King is an 13-time Emmy Award-winner and television production legend.

King earned the awards during his tenure as director of “Saturday Night Live” for a decade and a half from 2007 to 2021. King also earned four awards from the Directors Guild of America for his work on the show.

King earned his bachelor’s degree in 1969. His career spans more than five decades and his experience on live TV, from morning news programs to variety shows, makes him one of the most prolific directors of live shows in the history of the medium.

Along with “Saturday Night Live,” his mix of directing credits includes “The Mike Douglas Show,” “Good Morning America,” “CBS This Morning,” “Survivor,” “The Early Show,” “Criss Angel Mindfreak” and “The CBS Evening News with Dan Rather.”

King, a consistently strong supporter of the Bellisario College and Penn State, has been honored as both a Distinguished Alumnus and as an Alumni Fellow. He has regularly visited campus for special events through the years and collaborated with students on special events, including a live sketch comedy effort between the livestreaming division of CommAgency and a group of student comedians this spring. He also conducted a live Zoom webinar for Bellisario College students in October 2020 and hosted a one-man show on campus in 2017.

In addition to his work on television, King is the creative director of Broadway Worldwide, which brings Broadway events to theaters and television.

King, a native of Pitcairn, Pennsylvania, started his career at WPSX-TV in State College before moving to other TV stations in the state of Pennsylvania and, later, California. He initially hoped to be an actor, and his love of Broadway at least in part influenced his decision to live in New York City.
